Hon. Allen W. Dulles,
Director,
Central Intelligence Agency,
Washington 25, D. C.

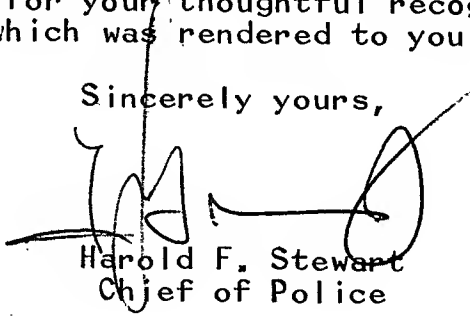

Dear Mr. Dulles:

I was most pleased to learn of the incident described in your kind letter of 24 January, which afforded Private Edwin S. Conlon, of this Force, the privilege of assisting you in catching your plane.

A copy of your letter has been attached to Conlon's file. He is very pleased to have a commendation from such a distinguished personage.

Your letter has been called to the attention of Superintendent Harry T. Thompson, of National Capital Parks, who joins with me and with Private Conlon in an expression of appreciation for your thoughtful recognition of the small service which was rendered to you.

Sincerely yours,

Harold F. Stewart
Chief of Police
